SCOTCH MULE EWE LAMB

Walleys Marts Castle Douglas Limited continued their breeding sheep sales on Monday 27th August 2018 when they held their Annual Show and Sale of Scotch Mule Ewe Lambs.

Stronger tupping lambs were easier sold and in many cases would be up on the year. However as a result of a shortage of grass in the South and a lack of confidence in general in the sheep trade the gimmering lambs proved more difficult to cash.

At the pre-sale show the judge, Mr John Guild, The Laight, picked a pen of smart lambs from J & A Brown, Macqueston as the champion pen. They went on to sell for £154 to Messrs Smith, Towiemore, Keith. Reserve Champion pen came from Mains of Larg Farmers which went on to sell for £118 to R Templeton & Co, Carslae. Outwith the show winners the sale topped at £162 for an outstanding pen from R J Shennan & Sons, Farden selling to Croy Cunningham Farms. Next up at £160 was the top pen from W Lockhart & Co Culdoach which sold to J Guild, The Laight.

Overall sale average levelled at £92.91 for 7266 sold compared to £100.83 for 8474 last year.
