CURRENT BVD REGULATIONS:

Do not move BVD virus positive animals other than directly to slaughter. • Do not move animals from a herd with a 'not negative' status unless individually tested for virus. • Test any animals you bring into your herd from an untested herd. Non-breeding herds Any calf that is born into the herd must be tested for BVD virus by ear tissue tag test within 40 days of birth, or before it is moved if this is sooner than 40 days from birth. The BVD status of all animals and herds can be checked at www.scoteid.com under BVD lookup.

STORE HEIFERS TURNING OUT IN-CALF CONDITIONS OF SALE

All store heifers are sold as being free of the bull. Notifications of any heifer proving to be in-calf must be intimated to the auctioneers immediately and within less than 6 calendar months from the date of purchase. The purchaser has the option to either return the heifer to the vendor or retain the heifer and calve her at their own risk. If the purchaser keeps the heifer then the vendor will be bound to pay compensation of £200 plus the cost of the vet certificate. If the purchaser returns the heifer the vendor is bound to pay keep at the rates of £10 per week November to end of March and £4 per week outside these months plus carriage both ways and vets certificate expenses. The vendor has the right to ask for a vet's certificate confirming pregnancy. NO CLAIM WILL BE ENTERTAINED IF THE HEIFER HAS CALVED OR ATTEMPTED TO CALVE PRIOR TO THE AUCTIONEERS BEING NOTIFIED.

BULLOCKS NOT PROPERLY CASTRATED

ALL COMPLAINTS RELATING TO BULLOCKS NOT PROPERLY CASTRATED MUST BE NOTIFIED TO THE AUCTIONEERS WITHIN 14 DAYS OF THE SALE.

ALL PURCHASERS INTENDING TO SLAUGHTER STOCK EITHER DIRECTLY OR SHORTLY AFTER PURCHASE FROM THE STORE RING, MUST SATISFY THEMSELVES THAT SUCH STOCK IS NOT IN A TREATMENT WITHDRAWAL PERIOD.

Would all vendors ensure that cattle passports are sorted into the lots in which the cattle will be sold and are handed into the main office at least one hour before they are due to be sold. Failure to do so will result in them missing their turn and having to be sold at the end of the sale. The purchaser has 7 days from the day of the sale to notify the auctioneers as to any incorrect passports
